Event Details

Where: Online! Register here by June 30th

When: Every Wednesday in July starting 7/1 and ending 7/29; 9 am – 12 pm PST

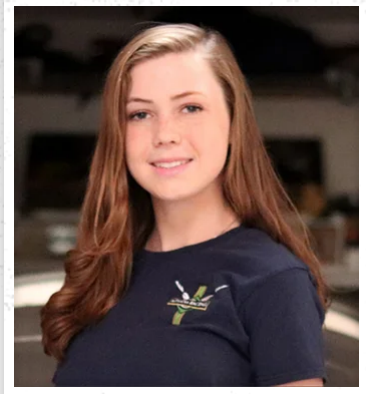

Who: Middle school and high school girls from anywhere in the country

Helix Junior, Adeline, was part of their 2019-2020 inaugural class!

This is what she had to say about her experience, "Before I heard about Athena Racing, I did not feel like I was reaching any of my automotive or STEM goals. Of course, school helped create an interest in the science part of STEM, but there was never an opportunity, like Athena Racing, for me to develop skills and goals in the engineering field that interests me.

Just by being a part of the Athena Racing team I will be able to inspire so many young women to explore automotive or STEM careers. If this is something I enjoy doing, I will make a club and maybe even convince my school to create a class for automotive engineering! Forming a club for the automotive industry would inspire many people at my school, as well as incoming students in future years!

Volunteering at other schools and teaching them about STEM and an automotive engineer would be another way that I could inspire young girls and women to think about this as something they maybe want to pursue in the future!"
