Scholarships

Research all necessary requirements for scholarships (i.e. essay, transcript, letter of recommendation, etc.)

- Naviance
  - Sallie Mae (National Scholarship Search)
  - Scholarship Match
  - Scholarship List
- Search Engines
  - Scholarships.com
  - Fastweb.com
- Phone Apps
  - Scholly

The image shows a promotional banner for the Scholly app. At the top left is the Scholly logo, which includes a red outline of a dog's head and the word "Scholly" in a bold, sans-serif font. At the top right is the word "MENU" in a smaller, all-caps font. The background is a solid dark red. On the left side, a white smartphone is shown displaying the app's "Parameters" screen. The screen has a red header with "Back" and "Parameters" and a list of filter categories, each with a green checkmark: State, Race, GPA, Gender, Need/Merit Based, Grade, Major, and Miscellaneous. On the right side, the text "The Easy Way To Find Scholarships" is written in large, white, bold letters. Below this, a smaller line of white text reads: "Scholly is an easy way to find scholarships for high school seniors, current undergraduates, and graduate students." At the bottom right, there are two black buttons: one with the Apple logo and the text "Download on the App Store", and another with the Google Play logo and the text "GET IT ON Google play".

College Decision – May 2018

- May 1st
  - Most universities (UCs, CSUs and privates) will ask that you make your decision by May 1st 2018
  - Intent to Register/Enroll Deposit (Deferment available)
- Private Universities
  - Early Decision: decision plans are binding – a student who is accepted as an ED must attend the college
  - Early Action: plans are nonbinding – students receive an early response to their applications but do not have to commit to the college until the normal reply date of May 1.
  - Approximately 450 colleges have early decision or early action plans, and some have both

Start having conversations about what college to attend TODAY!
